

MADE A STUDY OF MR. DALY. THE LEAGUE SEASON OPENS.

Max Figman Accounts for His Admirable Impersonation.

New York Meets Boston on the Polo Grounds To-Morrow.

Mr. Daly Trying to Secure Chevalier—Other Stage News.

Arrangements for the Ives-Roberts Billard Match.

"I sat up nights," said Max Figman the other day, "studying the character of Augustin Daly as I interpret it in 'The Post and the Pumpkins.' I confess that the task was not an easy one by any means. Before Daly has been besieged with a very exaggerated picture of him. My idea was to avoid burlesque and to steer clear of all previous conceptions of the author-manager's character. I try to play Augustin Daly as he is—to imitate him in dress, manner and peculiarities. You will readily understand the difficulties of such a job. I burned midnight oil studying Dalyism, and I spent considerable money in getting a correct hat and costumes." Mr. Daly has, of course, paid no attention to Mr. Figman's efforts, but it is whispered that he does not object to the impersonation in the least.

Albert Blal, of the firm of Koster & Blal, has been trying to negotiate with Chevalier, the famous London coster singer, with a view to taking him to Chicago during the Fair. Blal is now in London, and it is said that he has been making most frantic efforts to approach Chevalier. That very independent gentleman, however, will not consider any offer, no matter how tempting. His salary in England is enormous, and his appearance here would be something of a risk, for it is not at all sure that London coster songs would be very much appreciated in America.

In his new opera—that is to say, oh gods—entitled "Panjandrum", Dr. Whit Hopper will make his entrance in a vehicle drawn by a pair of white mules owned by the wealthy eccentric millionaire, Mr. Dow. It is said, is much interested in the Hopper entrance. The white mules will take the place of the famous "White elephant" which has been provided to entertain visitors to the fair.

The Union Pacific iron-workers' strike has been declared off. The men returned to work yesterday.

Ice delivery men have been organized into a local assembly of the Knights of Labor in Omaha, Neb.

Carpenters' Union No. 1 has given $100 to the striking journeymen bakers of College Point.

Dixey is really growing a voice. Although still somewhat small, there is no doubt that he will be a great tenor when the voice ought to be. Dixey attributes his vocal distress to a severe cold he took a long time ago. He is working very hard and with success to recover himself.

Miss Lily Burnard, a favorite of the London concert halls, has been engaged by Tony Pastor and will be in New York early next week. She is the wedded wife of a London singer who makes a somewhat feeble attempt to copy the American interviewing idea. "I have been engaged for some time past by Tony Pastor to appear at his theater, but I have not made up my mind yet whether I shall go or not. But I shall go in the autumn."

"Whilst over there you will pay a visit to the cathedral, I suppose?" queried the fond youth.

"Father," was the reply, "I am also going to visit Buffalo and Washington."

"You guessed me right. I have an aunt in New York who is a member of the Salvation Army, and before I return I may be converted."

Oh, bright Miss Lily Burnard!

J. G. Buff has just received Gilbert and Sullivan's old-fashioned "Pinsapo" in Pithia, phr, for which city such chestnuts do not exist. But always plus his faith to "prove" it. Two or three seasons ago he did a colossal business with it at the Chicago Auditorium.

Alas for the poor Chicago chorus girls! They will be disappointed. Abby A. Schaefer's big spectacle "Progress" will pay $14 a week for board and lodging, sleeping four in a room, after May 1. The considerate landladies are charging $10 per week for those accommodated before May 1.

A Chicago girl writer has made the awful discovery that Kyrie Beloved is bewigged. She says that this intimacy is of very recent origin. She has been told that this affected woman has appeared in "Romance," "Antony and Cleopatra" and "Therese." His bow-leggedness has only been apparent during the last few weeks, a fact that leads the impression critics to infer that it is due to advancing age.

Eddie Devin is dead. The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Sarah Devin and as he was being led to the "pen" in the rear of the court-room.

Devin was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity. Consumption developed, and last February he was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

"EDDIE" DEVIN IS DEAD.

The Slayer of Max Clerget a Victim of Consumption.

The fact that Edward Devin, the young man who shot and killed, in the Court of General Sessions, young Max Clerget, who had criminally assaulted Eddie's fifteen-year-old sister Sarah, died April 8 in Roosevelt Hospital has just become public.

The shooting occurred June 25, 1892, just after Clerget had pleaded guilty to the charge of